SECTION 1: GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS

1. Bids must be submitted on the Value Form which is part of the Request for Bids, and also on the provided CMHC standard Invitation to Bid Form (Bids will be rejected if both forms are not complete), and sealed in an envelope or package that cannot be seen through if delivered by hand or mailed, or emailed as an attachment, with the project title, to:

Renovation of Residence at Lot #A-1 Champagne, Yukon
CAFN Property Services Department
#1 Allen Place. Box 5310
Haines Junction, YT
Y0B-1L0

Attention:
Terry Rufiange-Holway
Property Manager
(867) 634-5232
tr-holway@cafn.ca

2. Bids must be received at the location specified above, before the specified closing time, as determined by the clock at the closing location. Bids received late, or not received completely by the closing time will not be considered and will be returned to the bidder unopened.

Bids can be received by email as an attachment (include title of project in subject line), by regular mail, or delivered by hand. Hard copies of the bids on both the CAFN Value Form and the CMHC Invitation to Bid form will be used for evaluation.

Bids will also be accepted in the Whitehorse CAFN Office at 304 Jarvis Street.

3. The closing time is up to and including: Friday, April 21, 2017 at 4:00:00

➤ A site visit for contractors will be conducted on Wednesday, April 12, 2017 at 2:00 pm

4. As soon as possible following the bid closing time, the bid envelope will be opened in the office specified in section 1.

5. The bidder shall identify, on the envelope containing the bid, its business name and address and the title of the bid enclosed.
 6. Bids must be signed by an appropriate authorized official of the party submitting the bid. Erasures and/or corrections must be initialed by the person(s) authorized to sign the bid.
 7. Any bid submitted may be withdrawn by written request by an authorized official, but cannot be withdrawn or changed after the closing time.
 8. Bidders are solely responsible for their own expenses in preparing and delivering their bids.
 9. Champagne and Aishihik First Nations reserves the right to modify the terms of the invitation at any time prior to closing, at its sole discretion. Champagne and Aishihik First Nations will make information available to the public regarding any changes made to the invitation and will make reasonable efforts to inform all bidders of any such changes. Bidders are responsible for ensuring that they are aware of and complied with any addenda.
 10. Bids already submitted may be amended prior to closing (i) by submitting an amendment identifying the plus or minus variance to the original bid, or (ii) by sending in a complete new bid, clearly indicating that it replaces the previously submitted bid. A bid revision replaces any other bid revisions previously submitted by the bidder; only the last of any bid revisions will be accepted.
 11. Accuracy of information included in this invitation is not guaranteed or warranted by Champagne and Aishihik First Nations to be accurate, nor is it necessarily comprehensive or exhaustive. By submitting a bid, the bidder agrees that it has investigated all conditions that will affect the work and assumes all risks regarding those conditions.
 12. Enquiries regarding the invitation must be made in writing and submitted to the office specified in section 1. No response shall be binding on Champagne and Aishihik First Nations unless it is made in writing. Enquiries and the responses given may be distributed to all other bidders as addenda.
 13. All prices should be extended and totaled. In the event of an error in calculation of the extended price, the unit price will be taken as correct and will govern in the bid evaluation and contract administration.
 14. If the bid is accepted, prices must remain firm for the duration of the contract unless otherwise specified in the invitation or contract documents.

15. The bid shall be unconditional, irrevocable and open to acceptance by Champagne and Aishihik First Nations at any time within 30 days after the date on which bids close.
 16. If, in the opinion of Champagne and Aishihik First Nations, a bid contains a minor defect or fails in some way to comply with any requirement of this tender document that, in the opinion of Champagne and Aishihik First Nations, can be remedied without providing an unfair advantage with respect to other bidders, Champagne and Aishihik First Nations may request clarification from the bidder, and, upon receipt of appropriate clarification, may waive the minor defect or any irregularity and accept the bid.
 17. This invitation does not commit Champagne and Aishihik First Nations to award a contract. Champagne and Aishihik First Nations reserves the right to cancel this invitation anytime without award or compensation to bidders.
 18. Champagne and Aishihik First Nations need not accept the lowest, the highest ranked, or any bid, and reserves the right to reject or accept any bid without further explanation.
 19. Failure to comply with any instruction contained in this invitation may be deemed sufficient cause for the rejection of all or part of any bid. Any items omitted or any special conditions or qualifications added to the bid (for example, including the bidder's standard terms of sale) may cause the bid to be rejected and may affect the evaluation of the bid.
 20. Submission of a bid shall be deemed to be confirmation that the bidder acknowledges and agrees to the contract terms, as set out in the Contract attached to this document.
 21. Champagne and Aishihik First Nations reserves the right to negotiate changes to the terms of any contract with the lowest priced or highest ranked bidder. Such changes, if any, shall be within the scope of this tender.
 22. If no compliant bids are received in response to this invitation, Champagne and Aishihik First Nations reserves the right to enter into negotiation with one or more suppliers in order to complete the procurement.
 23. Each bidder, by submitting a bid, irrevocably waives any claim, action or proceeding against Champagne and Aishihik First Nations, including without limitation any judicial review or injunction application or against any of Champagne and Aishihik First Nations' employees, advisors or representatives for damages, expenses or costs including costs of bid preparation, loss of profits, loss of opportunity or any consequential loss as a result of, or arising out of, the submission of any bid, or due to Champagne and Aishihik First Nations not accepting or rejecting any bid.

24. In order to assist the Champagne and Aishihik First Nations in determining the best qualified and capable bidder, Champagne and Aishihik First Nations reserves the right, to make any investigations of a bidder's business experience, financial capability and business practices as deemed necessary. The bidder agrees to permit and cooperate with such investigations.

25 Champagne and Aishihik First Nations employs a preference for Citizen and Citizen Businesses. "Citizen" is as defined in the Constitution of the Champagne and Aishihik First Nation 2012. "Citizen Business" means a sole proprietorship of a Citizen, a partnership where at least one partner is a Citizen, or a corporation that is controlled by a Citizen, as defined in the Canada Business Corporations Act. Please see the Supplementary Instructions for application of the preference to this tender.

1. Evaluation

Bids will be reviewed based on the evaluation criteria set out in this invitation.

Bids envelopes must be clearly labeled with the name and address of the bidder and the title of the bid enclosed.

Champagne and Aishihik First Nations may request information from the highest ranking bidder so that it can judge the ability of the highest ranking bidder to fulfill the contract requirements.

2. Citizen Preference

Bids of identified Citizens or Citizen Businesses will be awarded points towards their total evaluation score as set out in the evaluation criteria of this invitation.
