

CHAMPAGNE AND AISHIHIK FIRST NATIONS

BOARD AND COMMITTEE OPPORTUNITY

ALSEK RENEWABLE RESOURCES COUNCIL (ARRC)

CAFN is seeking applications for three Members-at-Large and one Alternate to participate on the Alsek Renewable Resource Council. The ARRC is a voice for local community members in managing our renewable resources in the CAFN Traditional Territory, including fish, wildlife and forests. Renewable Resource Councils are unique to the Yukon Territory and provide strong input into planning and regulation by the territorial, federal and First Nations governments. The ARRC's jurisdiction is the Champagne Aishihik Traditional Territory which includes the communities of Haines Junction, Canyon Creek, Mendenhall, Silver City, Kloo Lake, Aishihik and Klukshu. Residency on Traditional Territory is required.

Term: 3 years

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 15, 2026.

CAFN Boards and Committees applications are available on the webpage at:
