CHAMPAGNE AND AISHIHIK FIRST NATIONS

CALL FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Sharing Your Knowledge: Community Wellness

Community Wellness is seeking Elders, Knowledge Keepers and skilled CAFN Citizens interested in sharing their knowledge through hands on workshops and cultural activities.

Skills may include:

- Traditional tool making
- Canvas bag making / Mukluk making
- Beaver Fur Hats and Mitts
- Meat processing, cutting and preserving
- Shawl making
- Sewing and beading
- Canning and food preservation
- Other traditional on-the-land skills

Community Wellness welcomes other ideas for teachings. Knowledge sharing is valued, and these gatherings and workshops are an opportunity to connect generations, learn together and keep CAFN traditions strong.

If you are interested in sharing your knowledge and skills through future workshops, please contact:

Jocelyn Kinney
Activity Programs Coordinator, Community Wellness
Email: Jkinney@cafn.ca
Phone: 867-634-4200 ext. 214